About this guide

This operational guide is intended to inform agencies of the operational rules and case processing procedures at Humania Assurance for administration, case management and underwriting.

For specific information on underwriting, please consult the appropriate guides.

This information is provided for guidance only and is not binding on Humania Assurance Inc.

INDIVIDUAL INSURANCE ADMINISTRATION

Before submitting a “paper” application:

- Make sure the representative has signed the application in the representative’s identification section;
- Make sure the initial premium is attached for products where this is required;
- Make sure a legible illustration (from the current software) is submitted with the application (one illustration per product and per policy is required);
- Make sure to use online applications only once per client (the application number is unique and will be required for processing).

Failure to meet these requirements will result in the application being returned without being processed. Since no documents are kept, everything will have to be sent again for processing.

To speed up processing of an application:

- Make sure the application is filled out in full, especially the “Employment History” section.
- Make sure the representative’s code is clearly indicated and is correct; if the representative’s code is pending, please indicate your agency code.
- Make sure that proof of income is included if required on the illustration.

Note: The first agent listed in the “Identification of Financial Advisor” section will be the contract service advisor/representative.

Note: If a change is requested during delivery, please return all required items as well as the contract, accompanied by a signed request or a new illustration.

Effective date

- All policies are issued as of the current date unless a different date is requested by the representative or the Policy Owner, either to accommodate the age of the insured or to coincide with the replacement of an in force policy.
- No policy will be dated on the 29th, 30th or 31st day of the month. Policies issued on those days will be dated on the 28th day of the month or, if that date causes a double bank withdrawal, on the first day of the following month for “traditional” products.
- Requests for specific dates must be made at the time the application is submitted, or, at the very latest, before the settlement of the policy.
- For Web products, no policy will be issued on the 29th, 30th or 31st day of the month. These policies will be issued as of the first day of the following month.

Change in the effective date (redating)

- Upon delivery, if the client wants the contract to be redated to the current date, and if this change does not affect the premium, the “Redating request” form may be filled out and signed without returning the contract.
- Fill out the “Declaration of insurability” form.
- Solely to accommodate age, we agree to backdate policies by no more than:
 - Six months prior to the application date for any life insurance policy;
 - Six months prior to the application date for any disability insurance policy;
 - Three months prior to the date of issue of the policy for any critical illness insurance policy.
- To accommodate the age of the person to be insured and to make that person eligible for coverage or for a product or benefit for which they are not otherwise eligible due to their insurance age at the time the application is signed, we agree to backdate policies by no more than:
 - Six months prior to the application date for any life insurance policy;
 - Three months prior to the application date for any disability insurance policy;
 - Three months prior to the date of issue of the policy for any critical illness insurance policy.
- No policy may be issued with an effective date in the future. Issuance of the policy will be held back until the requested effective date. This date may be no more than 30 days after the date of approval by the underwriter. Any policy issued in this way will require a declaration confirming that there is no change in the health of the person to be insured or in the answers to the questions contained in the application.
- No request for redating a policy after its initial issuance will be considered unless the policy is returned accompanied by any delivery requirement and any premium that may be payable or if the policy has been settled. The reissued policy will bear the current date, unless there is a request to keep the age of insurance, as outlined above.

Change Request

- Fill out the “Disability, life and critical illness change application” form rather than an application.
- Fill out the “Declaration of insurability” form as well as the questionnaires relevant to the request or based on the condition of the insured.
 - The underwriter may set additional requirements (e.g., urine test, physician’s statement, etc.).
- A change in insurability may lead to denial of the change.
- Change of beneficiary: The appropriate form must be filled out for designation of the beneficiaries under the policy, dated and signed by the Policy Owner and the irrevocable beneficiary.
- “Absolute assignment” form: To be filled out to change the Policy Owner .
- “Assignment of the contract” form: To be filled out when a policy is pledged as collateral.

 - An anniversary statement is sent 30 days before the anniversary.

- Broker's code assigned by the General Agent.
- Specimen cheque or indication of payment if the broker is connected to a company or firm and must be paid through the corresponding entity.
- An incorporated advisor will need to submit two contracts, one for the corporation and one for the advisor. The General Agent needs to assign two codes, an individual one and a corporate one. The individual code will have selling rights while the corporate code will receive commission payments.

FILE UPDATES AND CHANGES:

- Change of address or telephone number: process the change on the APEXA profile.
If the broker is not on APEXA write to: contracting@humania.ca
- Change of email address : process the change on the APEXA profile.
If the broker is not on APEXA write to: contracting@humania.ca

Note: This affects the address through which the broker is connected to the extranet.

- Name change: Send a new completed contract;
- Licence and liability insurance: update the APEXA profile. If the advisor is not on APEXA' send a copy to permis.licence@humania.ca

Transfers:

FULL TRANSFER

Transfer of a broker between firms (mandatory full transfer)

- Transfer form available in the My Agency space – Reference documents on the extranet platform.

PROCEDURES FOR THE MANDATORY FULL TRANSFER OF A REPRESENTATIVE TO ANOTHER MGA

When a representative submits contracting under a new General Agent, the request is treated as a transfer request. All inforce portfolios must be fully transferred to the new code under the new General Agent.

For the new MGA the acquisition cost is five times the overriding commissions.

There are no fees for a transfer request, unless it is the second request for the same agent within one year. In this case, administrative fees of $250 will be required.

Process

Any transfer request must be sent to contracting@humania.ca, accompanied by a new contract and a full contracting package. Upon receipt, we shall:

- inform the ceding General Agent of the transfer request;
- indicate the transaction amount to both MGAs;
- inform both MGAs if the advisor has a negative balance with Humania Assurance;
- attach the transfer request that has been received;
- create and activate the new representative's code under the requesting MGA.
- no commissions will be paid to the representative under the new General Agent until we have received the transfer request form, duly signed by all concerned parties.

IMPORTANT: We shall await confirmation of the transaction, through the release signed by all parties concerned, before finalizing the transfer.

- Finally, we will transfer the portfolios to the new representative's code.

Release

The only reason justifying rejection of a transfer request is when the advisor has a debt to the ceding General Agent. Should such a situation arise, the General Agent has to provide a proof of this debt specifying the amount owed.

Approval times

- Any new contracting request will be handled upon receipt of the complete file so as not to penalize the representative as regards new business.
- Any transfer request must be processed by both firms within ten (10) business days.

Pending

During the period when the transfer request process is under way, any new application (paper or Web) submitted through the representative will be processed under the new representative's code (by default, the follow-up is ascribed to the new firm), but payment will not be made until the release has been duly signed and received at our offices.

Clarification

A full transfer request transaction includes all of the representative's current portfolios.

TRANSFER OF POLICIES BETWEEN AGENTS (SERVICE AND COMMISSIONS)

It is possible for brokers to transfer only part of their portfolio or several policies to another agent. See the form in Appendix 1.

- If the transfer occurs between two brokers with the same general agent, we proceed upon reception of the transfer request form duly filled out and signed by the brokers concerned.
- If the transfer occurs between two brokers with different general agents:
 - Send a calculation request or partial transfer form signed by the brokers to contracting@humania.ca;
 - We will send details of the calculation for buyout of the overriding commissions on renewals for the policies in question.
 - When we receive confirmation of payment and the partial transfer form signed by all parties, we will proceed with the transfer.

Note: Commissions are transferred only upon renewal of each policy.

Agent of service change

Send the request to contracting@humania.ca

For a change in service agent on a policy, the client must send a signed letter or an e-mail from his or her personal address indicating a wish to have the policy entrusted to the new broker. In this situation, the former broker has 20 days to send us an opposing view from the client to continue serving the policy.

Note that, even if the request indicates that it applies to service and commissions, only the service will be modified. There must be a signed agreement between two brokers for the commissions to be transferred as well.

A request for change of service may also be sent to us from the current service broker indicating that he or she is delegating the service to another broker. It is then the broker's responsibility to notify the client concerned.

Commissions

COMMISSIONS SCHEDULE

Most of our products offer brokers the possibility of choosing between high and low (regular) or levelled commission. Brokers must select the type of commission when they complete the application. When this is not indicated, the default structure is the regular commission.

We do not provide a bonus system for brokers, and we do not offer varied commission schedule. We have just one scale per structure and product, and it is fixed, for all brokers.

The commission schedule will not be provided directly to brokers by our company. The General Agent can distribute it to its brokers if desired. You can request the schedule by writing to contracting@humania.ca.

Role of sales directors:

- Develop and maintain business relationships with advisors and general agents;
- Train and guide advisors;
- Provide consulting to our distributors.

COMMISSION SPLITS

Commissions splits must be specified by the advisor in the appropriate section of the policy application.

If a change is required, send request to contracting@humania.ca

Changes to commissions, for example a change in the commission split can be made only at the policy anniversary, or renewal date. When a policy is in force and the commissions have been paid, first-year commissions cannot be corrected. Brokers must ensure that the name AND broker code are properly indicated when they fill out the application to make sure that apportionments for first-year commissions are done correctly.

CLAIMS

How to get a claim form

All our forms for disability, fracture, critical illness and death are available online:
<https://www.humania.ca/en-CA/individual/claims-forms/make-a-claim>

For medical and dental, claims can be submitted online.

What is the processing time for a claim?

An acknowledgment is sent to the client and the broker upon receipt of the initial document. An analyst will examine the claim once all the forms have been received. We aim for a processing time of 10 days for disability or critical illness and five days for death.

Additional documents may be required by the analyst before a decision is made. The insured and the broker will be kept up to date on the requested information as per privacy standards.

How should a claim be submitted?

Only the original of Standard authorization for disclosure of information is required. All other documents may be sent as a copy. The insured should keep the originals and should always keep a copy of everything sent to the insurer.

Fax: 1-877-660-2519

Post: Claims Department

When will disability payments be issued?

Once the analyst has made a decision to accept the claim:

- Long-term disability payments are issued at the end of each month. This means the insured will receive his or her payments no later than the last day of each month.
- Payments for fracture, death or critical illness are issued only once, as quickly as possible.

How to receive payments by direct deposit

Direct deposit is available only for payments for disability or fracture.

The client must fill out the Direct deposit form or the section of the claim form to this effect.

What are the insured's responsibilities?

The insured is responsible for staying in contact with the analyst and to inform the analyst of any change in his or her medical condition throughout his disability.

The insured must also send all documents requested by the analyst, whether medical, financial or administrative.

What are the insurer's responsibilities?

We are responsible for keeping the insured informed of the steps being taken throughout his claim and to explain the decisions that are made.

It is also our duty to maintain the confidentiality of your personal and medical information.
